

2007 News Releases

Assiniboine Park Conservatory launches new live call-in service

NEWS @ A GLANCE:

Today, the Assiniboine Park Conservatory launched its new call-in service entitled "Plant-Aid", which is a live telephone call-in service focused on helping gardeners and non-gardeners alike with plant-related problems. (for more details, please read the full media release below)

WINNIPEG - April 25, 2007- Today, the Assiniboine Park Conservatory launched its new call-in service entitled "Plant-Aid". Have a plant-related problem, can't figure it out, call 986-2400 and speak to a member of the knowledgeable conservatory staff to get the solution.

"Plant-Aid" is a live telephone call-in service focused on helping gardeners and non-gardeners alike with plant-related problems. Operating from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday (closed statutory holidays) "Plant-Aid" will link experts in the know with citizens with plant questions. Staff will help you determine what plants are best where, how to get the most out of your garden and tricks of the trade when it comes to all things green and growing.

Let us help you have a successful gardening season – Call 986-2400 for assistance.

Last update: 25.04.2007

* Top of Page

Related Links

• Assiniboine Park Conservatory

• News Archives

• Media Centre

